TECH NIGHT GREAT SUCCESS.

Large Turnout Enjoys Good Play at Park Theatre.

The Park Theatre was entirely filled with Tech men and their friends on Saturday evening. All enjoyed the play, cheering by the rival classes served to enliven the intermissions, and the frequent appearance of Tech colors and the '08 and '09 numerals on the stage added interest to the performance.

The front of the orchestra and lower boxes were occupied by the Sophomores the upper boxes and balcony, together with a group of seats in the center of the orchestra, by Freshmen. Technology and class flags were every where in evidence. The evening formed a fitting and satisfactory conclusion to Field Day.

THE NIGHT BEFORE.

About seventy Sophomores and thirty-five Freshmen spent the night before Field Day on the war path at the Tech Field. The Freshmen, although they were the smaller in numbers, showed by far the greater pluck and nerve. They raised their colors to the tops of some trees near the Field and kept them there all night and the following morning, although they were rushed again and again by the Sophomores.

SOPHOMORE CLASS MEETING.

The Sophomore Class held a meeting in Huntington Hall last Friday at one o'clock to organize for Field Day. The theatre question was finally gone over and money was appropriated for the use of the Theatre Committee. F. H. McGuigan led cheering practice for some time, introducing several new yells. President Weinz urged the men not to hiss when the Freshmen cheered. After a general discussion of Field Day matters the meeting adjourned.

CIVIC CLUB.

"The Relative Advantages to the United States of Protection and Free Trade," was the subject under discussion at the meeting of the Civic Club held at the Tech Union Friday evening at eight o'clock.

Among those taking part in the discussion were the following: the President of the Club, Englis, '06. Bartlett, '06; Udale, '06; T. L. Hinckley, '06; Newton, '06; Wonson, '07; Keleher, '06; and Breitzke, '06.

GLEE CLUB.

Twelve members of the Glee Club and Coach Bartlett met Friday at four o'clock at the Tech Union. "The Phantom Band," "Winter Song," "In a Gondola," and "Three Little Piggies" were the pieces sung.

The Lowell Institute Lecture at Huntington Hall, last Friday evening, was well attended and proved very interesting.

1908 WINS FIELD DAY.

Football Game a Tie. Sophomores Win Relay Race. Tug-of-War Goes to the Freshmen. Score, 1908, 5; 1909, 4.

By winning the Relay Race and tying the Football game the sophomores managed to win Field Day by the score of 5 to 4. The day, as a whole, could not be said to have been a great success from a Tech standpoint or from a sophomore standpoint. The freshmen by all means ought to be congratulated on the showing they made. Their Football team was considerably lighter than their opponents, and in the Tug-of-War they were outweighed by 10 pounds to the man.

The attendance was very good, the grandstand being well filled as were both the bleachers. Besides this there were many people who were unable to get seats and had to stand.

Considerable delay was caused by the Cross Country race. Instead of finishing before 2.30 it was well on towards 3 o'clock before the last man had completed his lap. Harvard won by a score of 46 to 32 and thus evened up for the defeat she received last year. The time was 8 seconds faster than the record made by Lorenz of Tech, '05, last year.

The Football game, the second event, was very loosely played, and it is certain that had either team played consistent team playing it would have won easily. As it was, the result was in doubt to the last minute of play, for both teams scored after long runs on fumbles or flukes. The final score of 11 to 11 shows that the game was a lottery and either team's game all the time.

Between the halves both the Relay Race and the Tug-of-War were run off. In the Relay Race the sophomores led from the start and had no trouble in running their last relay, being about 60 yards or more ahead.

The freshmen took the Tug-of-War in rather easy fashion. They got the drop at the start and by steady, consistent pulling won in 45 seconds.

After the second half of the Football game was finished the usual rushing took place and both classes had a chance to work off their feelings. By the way the men got into the rushes it would seem as if there were lots of these feelings to dispose of.

FOOTBALL GAME.

FIRST HALF.

The game of football between the Freshmen and Sophomores was called at 3.05. Captain Glover won toss and chose western goal.

Wentworth kicked off for 1909 to Ellis, who was downed on the 25-yard line on a quick tackle by Connolly. Barnes and Glover rushed the ball to the middle of field. Ellis fumbled and the freshmen took the ball.

Godfrey fumbled on first down, but saved himself in good style. Wentworth kicked to Boylston and Crickett tackled. The playing on kicks was loose and open, and both teams suffered heavy loss on fumbles. Glover failed to make distance through Whitney, and Child kicked to 35-yard line.

Wentworth failed to gain for '09, and kicked to Barnes, who failed on next play on a try through Cook.

1908 kicked to Godfrey who was tackled on the spot. Eaton failed for a gain through center. Wentworth kicked to the middle field and on a fumble M. Fletcher, 1909, fell on the ball. Godfrey made a 55-yard run around left end for a touch-down. The goal was kicked by Wentworth. Time, 9 minutes.

Wentworth kicked to the 5-yard line and Godfrey downed the ball on a 10-yard gain. 1908 failed to make distance and Child kicked outside at 30-yard line. 1909 fumbled on first down and lost the ball to the sophomores. Glover hammered the line three times for 13 yards, and Barnes was tackled back by Whitney for 7-yard loss. 1908 failed to gain, and Child kicked to 30-yard line. Eaton caught the ball and was pushed back 3 yards by Smith. Cook hurdled for 5 yards through tackle. 1908 lost 5 yards for offside play. Eaton plunged through right tackle for 3 yards but failed for distance. Ellis was tackled back 1 yard. The freshmen took the ball on downs. On an attempt to punt by Wentworth, Glover blocked the kick by a hurdle through left tackle and made a 35-yard run for a touch-down. Smith kicked the goal. Time, 13½ minutes. Score, 6 to 6.

Glover kicked to Eaton, who ran the ball back 10 yards. On next down Eaton made 4 yards through center, but failed to gain through left tackle. Godfrey fumbled but the ball was recovered for 1909 by Bennett. Wentworth punted 35 yards, and Barnes ran it back 10 yards. Ellis failed to gain through Bennett. Heilman got 2 yards through right guard, and Child punted 40 yards to Hert, who slipped on the 10-yard line. Godfrey made 2 yards through left tackle, and Eaton double it at centre. Wentworth lost 5 yards on a try around right end. Godfrey failed to recover ground, and Wentworth punted to Barnes, who lost the ball to Soule on a fumble.

Glover was sent through guards and tackle for 11 yards in three downs. Wentworth stopped an end run and Child had to punt 40 yards to Hert. C. Fletcher took Connolly's place at right end. Eaton failed at center and Wentworth punted 35 yards to Barnes who put it back 5 yards. 1908 lost on downs, and Godfrey fumbled the first down for 1909. M. Fletcher recovered and Wentworth rounded right end for 2 yards. Hert made 5 yards on a quarter back play. Wentworth punted 30 yards and closed the first half.

SECOND HALF.

Glover kicked to '09's 25-yard line. The freshmen took their three downs to make distance. Wentworth punted 20 yds, and on fumble Heilman ran the ball back 10 yds.

The sophs fumbled, and Godfrey gained 1 yard around left end on next down.

Cook gained 2 yds. through tackle on tackle-back play. Wentworth kicked to 35-yard line to Barnes, whose fumble was recovered by Soule. Glover gained 2 yds. at center.

Child punted 40 yds., the ball falling outside. The freshmen took the ball on their 15-yard line. Eaton made 3 yds. through center and Godfrey rushed left tackle for 6 yds. Eaton was forced around left end for a 3-yard gain.

Heilman displaced Correll who retired to side lines, and Putnam went in at right half.

M. Fletcher gained his distance through center. Eaton took the ball through left tackle for 3 yds. M. Fletcher failed to gain his distance.

Hunt retired Eaton to the side lines.

1908 was held for downs, although Boylston made a good try for a run around left end gaining 2 yds. The freshmen were held for downs, and Heilman made 2 yds. for 1908 through center. Glover missed try for drop kick at 25-yard line.

Wentworth punted out to 1908 from 25-yard line.

Soule fumbled at the middle of the field but recovered, and Heilman gained 1 yd.

Child was laid out in the scrimmage but stayed in the game, when

WILLIAM A. NICHOLS, PRINTER, 208 SUMMER ST., REAR

Field Day 1905 will go down as one of the heartiest and best contests that Tech has witnessed. The sophomores rejoice in Field Day. victory, but victory by such a narrow margin that the freshmen have almost equal reason to be proud of their defeat. The Relay and Tug-of-war were clean-cut, decisive victories for 1908 and 1909 respectively. The Football game brought forth some fine punting by both sides, and, though the playing was ragged at times, gave evidence of the hard work which has been done by both classes.

In the Cross Country Run Harvard won by ten points, but the first two places went to Tech men, and the rest were well bunched, so that after a few months' further training and the experience which the new men have gained, we may look for a good showing at the Intercollegiate Run.

The attendance was encouraging, and the cheering better conducted than is usually the case. With the single exception of the lateness of beginning, the day was well managed and several disagreeable features of past Field Days, such as the small boy element, were eliminated.

May Field Day 1906 be as heartily fought as was the contest on Saturday.

THE TECH extends its heartiest congratulations to the Sophomore Committee for the excellent manner in which Tech Night was conducted. In our editorial of November 3, we referred to the choice as "poor judgment." The final result we think justifies the action of the committee fully, for no one came away Saturday night with a feeling other than that of satisfaction.

There is, however, always danger in attempting to shut down on the steam of six hundred enthusiastic Tech men. That it can be done with a play of high excellence and with good acting was shown Saturday evening.

NOTICE.

GLEE CLUB.—A special rehearsal of the Glee Club will be held at the Tech Union Wednesday afternoon at 4.00 P.M. Every member must be present.

HARVARD-PRINCETON DEBATE.

The first intercollegiate debate this year among the big colleges will be held on December 15, at Cambridge between Harvard and Princeton. Harvard will submit the question and then Princeton will have the choice of sides. Last year Princeton defeated Harvard in the annual debate.

ATHLETES OF THE WEST.

Out of the West come many young Lochinvars. In the last football season the Yale eleven had six Westerners; Harvard had four; Princeton had three, and Pennsylvania three. Twenty-seven per cent of Yale's student population are Westerners. Yet this 27 per cent furnish 46 per cent of the athletes. There are 568 Westerners among the 4,328 men at Harvard University, or 13 per cent, and the Westerners furnish 17 per cent of the athletes. Either the Westerners have better muscles and more of them, or they know better how to use them.

1908 WINS FIELD DAY.

Barnes tried to gain around right end.

Joslyn took Boylston's place at right half.

Child kicked 35 yds. On the next play 1909 fumbled, but Hert recovered and gained 5 yds. 1909 was given 5 more for offside play.

M. Fletcher carried the ball 3 yds. through left tackle, and Hert was thrown for 8 yds. loss on quarter-back play. Godfrey made a left end run for 15 yds. The play was disallowed, the ball taken back and 1909 was given the distance on holding.

1909 gained 1 yd. at centre, and Godfrey forced left tackle for another. Child punted 42 yds., and Hert ran it back 12. The freshmen fumbled, and 1908 got the ball.

Barnes was displaced by Wemple at left half, and Cook went to side lines, replaced by Pope at right tackle.

Putnam fell for 3 yds. loss in try around right end. Child punted 25 yds. to Godfrey, who carried it back 5. Godfrey made 2 yds. at left end and Hunt got his distance.

Wentworth gained 8 yds. at left end, and Hunt failed at centre. Godfrey pushed the ball 2 yds. through left tackle. Wentworth kicked 30 yds., the sophs fumbling but recovering well. Putnam made 6 yds. at right tackle, but Soule was thrown for 5 yds. loss in try for quarterback run. Child punted 25 yds. to Wentworth, and on fumble '08 took the ball.

Child punted 30 yds. Godfrey fumbled and 1908 recovered the ball again. On a fake kick Glover ran 23 yds. for a touchdown. Behind the posts every soph had his hands on the ball, and the try for a goal was forfeited. Score stood 1908, 11, and 1909, 6.

Wentworth kicked off to '08's 15-yard line. Putnam made 15 yds. around left end.

Ellsworth took Daddow's place at right guard.

Glover punted and 1909 carried the ball back only 3 yds. Godfrey made small gains around left end and 1908 lost 5 yards for offside play. The darkness was confusing by this time, and on a try around left end Godfrey got away and made a 65 yd. sprint for a touchdown. Wentworth missed the goal.

Game was called on account of darkness, with the score at 11 to 11.

1908 WINS RELAY RACE.

The Relay Race was hardly in doubt after the first relay was finished. Todd, '08, ran away from his opponent and gave his team mate about ten yards. This lead was increased by every runner on the '08 team and Orr, '08, had no trouble in coming in about 60 yds. ahead of Whitaker, '09. None of the freshmen were able to cut down the lead that gradually grew up ahead of them. The average time of the sophomore team was about 25.4, while that of the freshmen was about 26.1. Each man ran 220 yds.

The two teams were made up of the following men:

Richardson	Edmunds
Wellington	Orr (Capt)
Weinz	Beliveau
Blackburn	Todd
Steele	Loomis
Taylor	Ripley

Subs: Grunski, Friedman.

1909

Whitaker	Allen
Keeney	Wertheim

Dickerman	Perry

TUG-OF-WAR.

The Freshmen won the Tug-of-War by good pulling in 45 sec. From the pistol shot the freshmen had the advantage and kept the line moving the whole time. Although the sophomores seemed to have the best form when the two teams lined up, they pulled too high and therefore their greater weight did not tell. The freshmen on the other hand put all their weight into the line and in this way made up for the extra weight of their opponents.

The 1908 Tug-of-War Team was as follows: A. C. Merrill, L. Mayo, H. E. Batsford, W. D. Ford, W. F. Grimes, W. E. Booth, S. A. Malcolm, L. B. Hedge, D. Bowman, L. Coffin, B. S. Leslie, C. W. Whitmore, A. R. Hunter, R. W. Millard, J. Pope, J. F. Curran, W. J. Pierce, H. Webb (manager), F. G. Perry, W. W. Boynton, W. G. Pfeil, F. B. Stevens (captain), H. C. Elton, G. J. McTigue, V. E. Bird (anchor). Average weight, 158.48. Substitutes, C. L. Lufkin, I. M. Guilford, A. C. Besselièvre.

The 1909 Tug-of-War Team was as follows: S. A. Mace (Captain), E. A. Ware, D. Belcher, G. Miller, S. S. Bundy, L. D. Nisbit, C. D. Jacobs, G. P. Garret, B. W. Pepper, J. J. Elbert, H. M. Symonds, E. Substitutes, G. W. Bowers, A. F. Herold, P. B. Lord, J. W. Nickerson. Average weight, 155 lbs.

CROSS COUNTRY RACE.

Harvard Wins from Tech 46-32.

This year Harvard won the Cross Country Race held over the West Roxbury course. Calloway, Tech '08, was the first to reach the field. He was passed, however, by Beam, Tech '07, at the finish. The next four men were Harvard men. P. J. Clapp, Tech '06, finished seventh, followed by Miller and Hubbard of Harvard. Adams, Tech '06, came next, with Stone and Withington of Harvard, eleventh and twelfth. Only the first twelve men counted in the score, and Harvard won.

The time, 24 min. and 50 sec., was very fast for the course which is $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles long and very hilly. This beats the Tech record made by Lorenz last year, by 8 seconds.

The order of finishing of the first twelve was:

	HARVARD.	TECH.
Beam, Tech		12
Calloway, Tech		11
Crosby, Harvard	10

AT THE THEATRES.

Hollis Street Theatre.

Lulu Glaser will have the most enthusiastic sort of a greeting when she comes to the Hollis Street Theatre next week, for she is one of the greatest musical favorites who come here in the course of the season. Her triumphs in "A Madcap Princess" and "Dolly Varden" have been completely eclipsed by "Miss Dolly Dollars," a sprightly and up-to-date musical comedy, the best work of Henry B. Smith and Victor Herbert. Miss Glaser plays a young American heiress traveling in Europe, and her adventures with title noblemen are decidedly amusing. The company provided by Charles Dillingham is unusually strong, and is exactly the same as that which has appeared with her throughout her two engagements in New York since the opening of the present season.

Colonial Theatre.

One week more is positively all that can remain for "The Prodigal Son" in Boston. It has been splendidly received here and the general verdict is that it is the most powerful of the plays written by Hall Caine. The force of the romance of quaint Ireland is brought out in the play, and one is forced to admit that it is the most powerful dramatic triumph that has been seen in years. Liebel & Co. have given "The Prodigal Son" as powerful a cast as would possibly be expected, and all the leaders share in the honors, especially Edward Morgan, Edward Mackay, William H. Thompson, Alfred Hudson, Henry Bergman, Marie Wainwright, Drina De Wolf, Laura Albertson and Vera Mollish. On account of the elaborate nature of the production "The Prodigal Son" will only be seen in the leading cities.

Park Theatre.

"The Lion and the Mouse" has made a notable Boston triumph and for three splendid weeks it has held the stage at the Park Theatre, and there is no question but that it might continue to do so for weeks to come, were it not for the imperative engagement booked by Henry B. Harris to open at the Lyceum Theatre, New York, a week from Monday evening.

Next week will be positively the last in Boston. They go from here to New York and then to London, so that next week will be their positive farewell.

Tremont Theatre.

The Tremont Theatre offers next Monday for a limited engagement George Ade's pungent comedy, "The County Chairman," with Maclyn Arbuckle in the title role. This play will be a welcome relief to lovers of that kind of stage entertainment which invites laughter without effort. Mr. Ade is a writer whose efforts have always been warmly received in Boston, and as "The County Chairman" comes for a second time with the original cast, it is safe to assume that crowded houses will greet the favorites who scored here so distinctly last season. Heading the list is the well-known comedian Maclyn Arbuckle, who has been measured to a nicety by the playwright in the role of Jim Hackler, and whose portrayal of the bluff, good-hearted politician has made it one of the few lasting impersonations of a decade. Another bit of artistry equally prominent in "The County Chairman," and as well remembered, is the quaint characterization of the shiftless darkey, Sassafras. Livingston, played by Willis P. Sweatnam, than whom there is no better delineator of negro character on the stage. The play is divided into four acts, the first showing Jimmison's store with the nondescript personages of the village debating the issues of the coming campaign; the second bringing the rally in the grove with all the blare and glitter of a country campaign, wherein is depicted the speechmaking, the attendant country swains, the rosy-cheeked girls, the oldest inhabitants, and the local spellbinder. In act three, the great dramatic situation of the play is told in an interior representing the campaign headquarters, and the last act illustrates the reading of the election returns. Threaded through the woof of comedy is a tender love story which appeals to both sexes equally.

Castle Square Theatre.

With "The Sword of the King" next week romantic drama will hold the stage for a series of afternoon and evening performances. It will be splendidly staged at the Castle Square with careful attention to the historical accuracy of armor and costumes.

The hero in "The Sword of the King" will be played by Charles Mackay, who returns to the Castle Square Company after an absence of several years. His welcome is sure to be hearty and spontaneous. Miss Lillian Kemble will act the heroine.

Prof. Francis Greenwood Peabody of Harvard delivered his first lecture in Berlin last Monday night. This is the beginning of the interchange of professors between Germany and the United States. Professor Peabody spoke on "Academic Reciprocity." The Kaiser, with many eminent men in his court, was present, as were fifty professors and six hundred students. The Kaiser expressed his hearty appreciation of the good beginning in the interchange of professors.

FIELD DAY DINNER.

The Annual Field Day Dinner will be held at the Tech Union to-night at 6.30 P.M., for all men who participated in any way in the events of Field Day.

The following article is from the Daily Cardinal of the University of Wisconsin: "A meeting of the senior mechanical and electrical engineers has been held and it was decided to take, as has been the custom in former years, a trip through the east. As yet no definite time has been agreed upon, nor is it decided what cities will be included in the itinerary, but the cities which offer the best opportunities to witness the practical working of the theories of engineering will be included."

The Carnegie Lake at Princeton will require three years for completion. Work was begun last summer.

William Jennings Bryan has given the University of South Dakota $400, the proceeds from which are to be given as prizes for best essays in Science of Government.

Registration at Harvard this year shows a decrease in the number of students. The College has ninety-three students less, the Law School fourteen less, the Graduate School twenty-one more, and the Medical School ten more. The total registration figures show 3,865 students this year against 4,004 at this time last year.
